- ◆ Fiction Stories may be in any genre, pay close attention to setting and characterization.
- ◆ News Feature should be written as though the crime were solved, or the event was over, and have a point to make.

Judging:

- ◆ Stories will be judged on: Creativity, Content, Grammar and Spelling
If you write your story in any computer program, please run a spell check!!!
- ◆ Brush Creek Writers reserves the right to reject any and all works that it deems unsatisfactory in content or language.
- ◆ This is a blind judging. Cover sheets will be removed, so judges will only have your title and story to read.

Prizes:

Four prizes of $100 each and a Grand Prize of $200, will be awarded, at a ceremony on June 17th. Winners will be contacted by Allan James Grund, poet, songwriter, and playwright. Winners must attend the award ceremony.

The goal of Brush Creek Writers is to encourage students in grades 7-12 to explore their creative writing abilities.
